Anjali Venkat

FOR Anjali Venkat, a glass artist, inspiration comes in many forms – be it the play of light, iridescent wings of a dragonfly and, of course, the colours of Kanjeevaram silk saris! The products she creates are multi-functional and fused with organic material, and she constantly re-cycles and re-uses. For the last 13 years, Anjali has crafted everything from lampshades to candle holders. She works at her studio in Chennai and samples of her work can be viewed at www.anjalidesign.com.
